Summer Exhibition, Juried Intl, The Concept Space, London

The The Concept Space in London is a new gallery and exhibition venue. Located in an area gaining a reputation as London's latest art hub with spaces such as Jerwood Space, White Cube, Tannery Projects, Drawing Room, Art Bermondsey Project Space, Vitrine to name a few, it aims to present works that encourage exploration and experimentation within contemporary art practice through collaborative non-for-profit projects and commissions. This was my first London exhibition.

Pussy Diptych

Pussy (Riot) / Pussy (Grabber)
50 cm x 50 cm ChromaLuxe and pen on aluminum (Ed 5 + 1 AP)

Description

This diptych contrasts the personalities of two well-known men by way of line quality: each face was digitally drawn and abstracted using an algorithm roughly based on their documented personality types. Please consider the following quote a short artist's statement about this series:

"Sometimes that shark, he looks right into ya. Right into your eyes. Y'know the thing about a shark, he's got... lifeless eyes, black eyes, like a doll's eyes. When he comes at ya, doesn't seem to be livin'... until he bites ya." —Quint, from Jaws (1975)
